

1. Silhouette

(Written and composed by: Lisa Lois, Airto Edmundo, Ivan Peroti, Xerxes Bakker, Gerson 'Naijazzi' Main and Neil Thomas)

Holding on to pieces, of our summer, going by
On a wall of memories, at the edges of my mind
Oooh, they used to tell a story
But they're just paper to me now
Whoa, they used to say thousand words
But now they can't be heard

We ran out of time, said goodbye too soon
Pictures being faded, of the summer nights in June
Blurry all the memories, still remember what was true
Pictures they are fading, changing, leaving
A silhouette of you

Foot steps on the pavements
I'm retracing every corner we turned to see
If we could have kept these moments from burning
To ashes and dust
Oooh, they used to say thousand words
But now they can't be heard

We ran out of time, said goodbye too soon
Pictures being faded, of the summer nights in June
Blurry all the memories, still remember what was true
Pictures they are fading, changing, leaving
A silhouette of you
oooh, oooh, oooh, a silhouette of you
oooh, oooh, oooh, a silhouette of you
oooh, oooh, oooh, a silhouette of you

We ran out of time, said goodbye too soon
Pictures being faded, of the summer nights in June
Blurry all the memories, still remember what was true
Pictures they are fading, changing, leaving
We ran out of time, said goodbye too soon
Pictures being faded, of the summer nights in June
Blurry all the memories, still remember what was true
Pictures they are fading, changing, leaving
A silhouette of you.

2. You Don't Know Me

(Written and composed by: Lisa Lois, Airtio Edmundo, Matthew Marstone, Ed Johnson and Neil Thomas)

Back down, I think I've had enough of you Finished making the best of a bad situation too proud, to let you play me like a fool now you're acting like you're sorry, you're just sorry you got caught

Beat down, I let my heart get battered and bruised but honey, everybody's got their limitations I found out, now I'm bringing you the news you can tell me that you're sorry, but I'm telling you goodbye

Look in my eyes and wipe that smile off your face
Pack up your bags and get them out my place
The tougher you act, boy, the harder you'll fall
If you think I'll be lonely
You don't know me at all

Blacked out, I've been living in a fairytale with you but you just wrote yourself, out of a happy ending snapped out, now I ain't in the mood you can keep on saying sorry, but a word won't change my mind

Look in my eyes and wipe that smile off your face
Pack up your bags and get them out my place
The tougher you act, boy, the harder you'll fall
If you think I'll be lonely
You don't know me at all

(don't you remember making promises) don't you remember making promises to me

Look in my eyes and wipe that smile off your face the way you've been acting, you should be ashamed
You think I'll be crying, and climbing the wall well you don't know me at all

Look in my eyes and wipe that smile off your face
Pack up your bags and get them out my place
The tougher you act, boy, the harder you'll fall
You think that you know me
You don't know me at all

You don't know me (x2)
You don't know me no, don't know me at all
You don't know me (x2)
You don't know me no you don't know me at all

3. Parachute

(Written and composed by: Nikka Costa, Aírto Edmundo and Justin Stanley)

We all need a hand to hold
A place our troubles can unfold
Somewhere safe to lay and wait out the storm

We all need a place to fall
The arms of someone when we call
Someone there to prove to us
That we're not alone

And I can't tell you what you mean
I can't imagine where I'd be
You've always been the one that kept me on my feet

But this time I need to fly
With everything to lose
Without a parachute
And let the rain fall
Let myself free fall
To see what I can do
Without a parachute

There's a caution in the wind
That makes it hard to depend
On the people who we know feel like home
It might seem random, might seem wrong
Our hearts in tandem for so long
But I need to take the chance to be on my own

And I can't tell you what you mean
I can't imagine where I'd be
You've always been the one that kept me on my feet

But this time I need to fly
With everything to lose
Without a parachute
And let the rain fall
Let myself free fall
To see what I can do
Without a parachute

I won't break
I've got your love to keep me strong
I Just need some space
But it won't mean I'm gone

But this time I need to fly
With everything to lose
Without a parachute
And let the rain fall
Let myself free fall
To see what I can do
Without a parachute

4. Cover Up

(Written and composed by: Darren Hayes, Justin Parker and Lauren Pritchard)

Been a puzzle from the start
Cuz I never let you know
Got the pieces all layed out
But I don't know where they go

And I could tell you what I'd like
But I know you wouldn't hear

You'd say it's a cover up

And you'd tell me just to sleep it off tonight
And we lay with a thousand miles between us
And all the sheets have twisted up with time
And I don't want to lie

There's a sadness in your eyes
That I've never seen before
Maybe we'd be better off
As just pieces on the floor

'Know I watched it all burn down
But there wasn't much to save

You'd say it's a cover up
And you'd tell me just to sleep it off tonight
And we lay with a thousand miles between us
And all the sheets have twisted up with time
And I don't want to lie

Oh and I know it's so much easier to let it slide

But I don't care if I have to be the one you blame

You'd say it's a cover up
And you'd tell me just to sleep it off tonight
And we lay with a thousand miles between us
And all the sheets have twisted up with time
And I don't want to lie

All these dreams have twisted up with time

5. Crazy

(Written and composed by: Airtio Edmundo and Neil Thomas)

You, you must have put a spell me on baby Cause I, I can't get you out of my mind no matter if it's night or day
I might be asleep or wide awake
The thought of you is bugging me all of the time

I find talking a struggle
So pour me a double cause I've got something to say baby

I'm about to shout it out from the rooftops
I got it written all over my face
I'm done holding back I'm pulling out all stops
I'll take a leap of faith

So I'm ready if you're ready
So come with me if you're with me yeah
I might as well shout it out from the rooftops
Cause I'm so in love, it's crazy

You know I try, I try not to dream about you
But I just can't help wondering if you feel the same
If I keep it locked inside
This love is gonna eat me alive
Oh I can't wait to feel your touch again

I'm hiding a secret but how am I gonna keep it
When all I ever think about is letting you know

I'm about to shout it out from the rooftops
I got it written all over my face
I'm done holding back I'm pulling out all stops
I'll take a leap of faith
So I'm ready if you're ready
So come with me if you're with me yeah
I might as well shout it out from the rooftops
Cause I'm so in love

It's crazy
I could never get enough of you
It's crazy
Just look at what a little love can do
It's crazy
To think that I was all alone and then you saved me

I'm about to shout it out from the rooftops
I got it written all over my face
I'm done holding back I'm pulling out all stops
I'll take a leap of faith
So I'm ready if you're ready
So come with me if you're with me yeah
I might as well shout it out from the rooftops
Cause I'm so in love it's crazy

6. Breaking Away

(Written and composed by: Lisa Lois, Airtó Edmundo, Andy Platts, Jan Rooymans and Neil Thomas)

The girl in the mirror said I told you so but you didn't wanna hear me out you took your chances and it burned your hopes but it's too late to turn around now I'm older, old enough to know better when to let things go

And there's nothing, nothing I can't face
No there's nothing, keeping me from turning the page
I got one thing, one thing I got to say, they can try to control, put a hold on my soul
but I'm breaking away

I see familiar faces follow me, it's like they're everywhere I go they're all just pieces of some memory of a person that they used to know

That somebody is slipping out of reach somebody gone with history

And there's nothing, nothing I can't face
No there's nothing, keeping me from turning the page
I got one thing, one thing I got to say,
They can try to control, put a hold on my soul
But I'm breaking away

There's nowhere to go when you're stranded on an island that's caught in a drift, far from home

I'm so much stronger, than I'll ever know

And there's nothing, nothing I can't face
No there's nothing, keeping me from turning the page
I got one thing, one thing I got to say,
They can try to control, put a hold on my soul
But I'm breaking away

I'm breaking away (x4)

7. Not A Love Song

(Written and composed by: Lisa Lois, Airtio Edmundo and Dominic 'Mocky' Salole)

You said we were unbreakable
But it was impossible
To get in tune with you

You said you were unphasable
But something I did
Must have struck a chord with you
It's always been you

I try to control my emotions
But I'm barely hanging on
I find I just can't focus
On what's really going on
However hard I try
Oh the words all come out wrong
This ain't supposed to be a love song
But I can't get over you

I thought, we were unstoppable
Until you went and locked the door
And you changed the key on me

Your love's irreplaceable
I don't know how
To get back in harmony
Now it's just me

I try to control my emotions
But I'm barely hanging on
I find I just can't focus
On what's really going on
However hard I try
Oh the words all come out wrong
This ain't supposed to be a love song
But I can't get over you

No matter where you are
You know I'll come running
No bridge is ever too far if you meet me halfway

I try to control my emotions
But I'm barely hanging on
I find I just can't focus
On what's really going on
However hard I try
Oh the words come out all wrong
This ain't supposed to be a love song

I try but I can't fight it Now I'm barely hanging on
I know that I've been blinded
To what's really going on
However hard I try
Oh the words all come out wrong
this ain't supposed to be a love song
but I can't get over you

8. Wait

(Written and composed by: Crispin Hunt, Jade Ewen, Airtio Edmundo and Neil Thomas)

Been living on the edge of a life
That promised a world
Where impossible is nothing
Took a leaf from the good book
Took a slap in the face
But now I'm on to something
So here comes the new color
Here comes the new creed
I know it's just a matter of time
And as long as I believe
All I gotta do is

(Wait)
A little longer now
Getting stronger now
You gotta
(generate, generate, wait)

A little longer now
You can ride it out
You gotta
(generate generate Wait)

Oh these times were born in
They make it hard to find your calling
(gotta Wait)
Just a little longer
Cause I know I'm on my way

Never felt I was living my life
Till I took the chance
To step out the shadows
Like a bird that's stuck in a cage
When I closed my eyes I could sing from a mountain top
So here comes the new color
Here comes the new creed
I've got the strength of a million souls
And as long as I believe
All I gotta do is

(Wait)
A little longer now
Getting stronger now
You gotta
(generate, generate, wait)

A little longer now
You can ride it out
You gotta
(generate generate Wait)

Oh these times were born in
They make it hard to find your calling
(gotta Wait)
Just a little longer
Cause I know I'm on my way

The truth ain't comfortable
But if you want it all

The best things come to those who can Dust off the dirt, and put in the work but you better be ready

(Wait)
A little longer now
Getting stronger now
You gotta
(generate, generate, wait)

A little longer now
You can ride it out
You gotta
(generate generate Wait)

Oh these times were born in
They make it hard to find your calling
(gotta Wait)
Just a little longer
Cause I know I'm on my way

9. Not My Business

(Written and composed by: John Gordon, Laura White, Aírto Edmundo and Neil Thomas)

Mister, don't you remember, somebody lead you astray we went our separate ways

Seems you forgot me until you needed somewhere to stay but this isn't your lucky day

Let's not pretend that we can be friends, you're on your own your little knock on my door doesn't work anymore
'cause I don't wanna know

Why don't you shout about it, scream down the town about it
Go tell your mama cause it's not my business
Why don't you cry about it, make up a lie about it
Run to your mama cause it's not my business

It's over, cause I'm done
Now I'm gone, so move on
Start up your engine
and get the motor rollin'
I'm sick of telling you it's not my business

Mister, your talk gets old, it's been round the block, you ain't saying nothing at all
Do you really think I'm so soft that you'll get whatever you want
You just don't get it at all

Let's not pretend that this didn't end, you're on your own Wouldn't let you dirty my floor, like I let you before
Cause I don't wanna know

Why don't you shout about it, scream down the town about it
Go tell your mama cause it's not my business
Go see a shrink about it, see what he thinks about it
Run to your mama cause it's not my business

It's over, cause I'm done
Now I'm gone, so move on
Start up your engine
And get the motor rollin'
I'm sick of telling' you it's not my business

oohhhhh no oo
'Cause were over
Yeah were done
My love's grown cold for you
So you're mad
That's too bad
Go run and tell your mother

Why don't you shout about it, scream down the town about it
Go tell your mama cause it's not my business
Go see a shrink about it, see what he thinks about it
Run to your mama cause it's not my business

It's over, cause I'm done
Now I'm gone, so move on
Start up your engine
And get the motor rollin'
I'm sick of telling' you it's not my business

10. Overcome

(Written and composed by: Lisa Lois, Airtio Edmundo and Hellen Visser)

So the rain is pouring down
On the streets where you roam

And the pavement's made of sand
Where there used to be stone

Now you're stuck in broken dreams
But your eyes are open wide

Still it's hard for you to see in the darkest of the night

But hold on
Time will ease the pain eventually

So hold on
Soon the day will come you'll see

The wind will guide you through the storm
you will overcome

Let water float you back to shore
you will overcome

When the battle knocks you down
To the ground

You know you can lean on me as long as you need so you can overcome

Even though the road is hard it's not a dead end street

Though it's scary where you are its not where you'll always be

So hold on
Time will heal your wounds eventually

Hold on to all your dearest memories

I wish that I
Could paint your sky

From grey to blue
That's what I'd do

I would take the pain
Just to see you smile again

Make it all go away
